

AMÉRICA LATINA LOGÍSTICA

ALL announces its inclusion in Ibovespa and IBRX-50 indexes

Curitiba, Brazil, September 1st, 2006 - ALL – América Latina Logística S.A. (Bovespa: ALLL11), the largest independent logistics service company in Latin America, announces its inclusion in the São Paulo Stock Exchange's Ibovespa and IBRX-50 indexes.

ALL's shares were included in the Ibovespa and IBrX-50's theoretical portfolios for the four-month period from September to December 2006, with respective shares of 0.718% and 1.215%, corresponding to 39th and 17th portfolio positions on September 1st, 2006.

The Ibovespa (Bovespa Index) is the Brazilian stock market's most important average performance indicator, since it reflects the behavior of the Bovespa's most-traded stocks. Its theoretical portfolio comprises shares that jointly account for 80% of traded financial volume in the twelve months previous to the last structuring of the portfolio and that have been traded on at least 80% of interim trading sessions.

The IBrX-50 (Brazil Index 50) measures total returns on a theoretical portfolio comprising 50 stocks, selected from the Bovespa's most traded securities in terms of liquidity, weighted according to the outstanding shares' market value. Selected companies must be among the 50 most traded in the 12 months prior to the last structuring of the portfolio and traded on at least 80% of interim sessions.
